

ELECTION

Homeowner's association to hold candidate forum for board elections

By Valerie Osier
vosier@scng.com

Four new candidates for the Palos Verdes Homes Association Board of Directors election will face five incumbents in a forum on Wednesday.

The January election is the first after a lawsuit was filed in earlier this year against the association that sought to change their election practices.

The League of Women's Voters, Lunada Bay Homeowners Association and Malaga Cove Homeowners Association will host the forum to allow PVHA members to ask questions of the nine candidates running for the board.

Questions for the candidates can be submitted ahead of time at the Lunda Bay HOA's website, and au-

INCUMBENT BOARD CANDIDATES

- Carolbeth Cozen
- Ed Fountain
- Phil Frengs
- Dale Hoffman
- Carol Swets

dience members will have a chance to ask questions at the forum. A set of volunteers from the LMV will moderate the the forum.

CANDIDATES NOMINATED BY PETITION

- Marlene Breene
- Mary Elwell
- Michael Moody
- L. Ried Schott

The forum is 7 to 9 p.m. in City Council Chambers at 340 Palos Verdes Drive, Palos Verdes Estates near Malaga Cove Plaza.